

FSC Alternating Relay Controllable System

FSC offers flexible and scalable solutions that satisfy and exceed the requirements of both owners and occupants alike. FSC integrates all aspects of lighting controls, including, low voltage, dimming, occupancy sensing, daylight harvesting, and now an Alternating Relay Controllable System, providing clients with the most energy efficient fixtures available in the marketplace.

8800 Series

FSC can help you employ unbeatable control strategies:

Alternating Relay Controlled fixtures allow for even burn down life on two ballast fixtures where customer requires 50% light at all times. Ideal for warehouses, food processing centers and parking garages.

7600 Series

- Changes on/off pattern for ballast so lamps burn down evenly
- Lower maintenance costs
- Available in a variety of fixture types including high bays and vaportites
- Wet listed IP65 & IP67 (7500, 7600 or 7900 series) version can be hosed down during cleaning
- Can include a photocell if needed
- Photocell and Motion Triggered Relay
- Works in linear Fluorescent and LED fixtures

Food Processors

Garages

Warehouses

Smart Fixtures for even Smarter Contractors...

12120 Altamar Place | Santa Fe Springs CA 90670 | TEL 562.906.2644 | FAX 562.906.2649 | www.fsclighting.com